

My Film/TV experience

Moviegoers and binge-watchers want to watch a series or film that hooks them from the beginning and promises to be a 'wild ride' or escape from their daily life.

Task

Describe a movie or TV series you saw recently that had you deeply involved in the story.

Why are some media artworks so engaging?

Write down your experience details about your experience.

Why did you want to keep watching? What did you see, hear, feel, think about the characters and their situation that had you wanting to see more of the story?

Write a 350 word response and create an engaging web page using Twinery.org with images and text.
